

THE YEAR FOR CLOAKS

If you think not, come see our prices on these garments. Perhaps you may not need them greatly now, but you do not reckon on warm weather all winter, do you?

YOU ARE WISE

If you do not, and act accordingly by securing a Cloak of us for a price that no other in this market can compete with. We speak advisedly.

In Furs and Seals we carry the largest stock in the State, and we are selling them AT COST. If you are wise you can.

Make Money this Weather

In Smoking Jackets we have a handsome line, marked very close to the actual cost price.

THE DREW DINNER PARTY.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Drew gave an elegant dinner party last evening to a number of friends at their beautiful home on North Pennsylvania street. The tables were set almost entirely with exquisite cut glass, that glittered in the light of the chandelier, and at each place was a bou-quet of roses and mignonettes. The favors for the guests were unique and very handsome. Each lady was given a surah silk bag, the lower part being set in a wreath of diamonds, which stood upright to about half the length of the bag, and in each bag was a silk handkerchief, having its color, either pink, yellow, or blue, to correspond with the color of the bag.

On each bag was the name of the lady, and on the handkerchief the name of the gentleman, who should accompany her to dinner. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Landis, Mr. and Mrs. C. E.
Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hatcher, Mr.

Eastern Star, last evening elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Worthy matron, Mrs. Lizzie J. Smythe; worthy patron, Chester Bradford; associate matron, Miss Carrie Taylor; treasurer, Mrs. Lizzie Louthbath; secretary, Miss Mary E. Engle; conductress, Miss Kate Connelly; associate conductress, Miss Edie Keeling. The installation of officers will occur Jan. 5, with Mrs. Nettie Ransford officiating.

The Brick Work Completed.
The brick work of the new buildings and heating plant at the Plainfield Reform School is complete, and on New Year's day, the school's twenty-first anniversary, the 125 stoves in use will be discarded and steam turned on. There were used in the buildings 5,000,000 bricks, made and laid by the boys. The big smoke-stack, 150 feet high, was finished this week.

The School Commissioners.
The School Commissioners transacted all of their business in a half an hour last night. A petition from nine young ladies in the High-school for the organization of a class in French was referred to the committee on high-schools. The resignation of Miss Belle Carroll, of No. 30, was accepted; and Miss Lizzie Logan, of No. 28, was transferred to the vacancy. The judiciary committee recommended that the board pay its share of the cost of the Pennsylvania-street improvement, provided the holders of the mortgaged indebtedness on the property occupied by the board will make an agreement that when its lease expires the property shall be conveyed to the mortgagees, and that the latter will refund the amount paid on the pavement at 6 per cent. interest. The recommendation was adopted.
